Help us protect Tenaflly Nature Center

- ◆ Stay on trails at all times and stay out of streams and ponds (to minimize disturbance to plants & wildlife).
- ◆ Trails are for foot traffic only. No bicycles (or any vehicles) beyond the parking area.
- ◆ No dogs or pets leashed, carried, or otherwise.
- ◆ Do not release any animals.
- ◆ Please do not disturb, feed, collect or remove wildlife—plants or animals or other objects (ex. mushrooms, rocks, soil, leaves, acorns, ferns).
- ◆ Smoking is not permitted anywhere on the premises, including vapor from an electronic smoking device.
- ◆ No fires (without staff oversight).
- ◆ Leave No Trace — Carry-In, Carry-Out. Please no littering.

Please Note

- ◆ Tenaflly Nature Center is open to the public seven days a week, year-round. Visitors are welcome to enjoy a hike along our 7+ miles of trails between dawn and dusk. For your safety, you must be off the property by dusk.
- ◆ Currently there is a nominal admission fee for non-members: $2/person or $10/family (up to 6 people). This admission is in effect between the hours 9:30 am - 4:30 pm daily. Visitors may bring cash or there are QR codes available for the use of digital payments.
- ◆ Groups of 10 or more are asked to contact us in advance.
- ◆ Professional photography and filming requires a permit. For more information see TenafllyNC.org/Photography-Filming
- ◆ Be sure to visit the Visitor Center building (Nature Center Building on the map). Open Daily from 9:30 - 4:30 pm.

Points of Interest

- ◆ Redfield Building (Visitor Center): Visit this red building north of the parking lot to learn more about our programs, read a book in our library, observe our Animal Ambassadors, or relax and let your children play with nature/science based toys. Adjacent to the building is our Bird Feeding Station, Butterfly and Pollinator Garden, and Birds of Prey Aviary.
- ◆ Main Trail: Continues along the line of Hudson Ave, intersecting with several other trails, and offers great views of Pfister's Pond.
- ◆ Yellow trail: Features a seasonal Storywalk®, loops from the Main Trail and leads to the floating dock, giving you a different view of Pfister's pond.
- ◆ Red Trail: Home of the Bellflower Faerie Trail, loops south of the visitors center and offers a selection of wildflowers in the spring.
- ◆ Haring Rock Trail: See Haring Rock, a glacial erratic boulder named after Dr. John J. Haring, who made house calls in the area circa 1900.
- ◆ White Trail (DeFilippi Trail): Follows the east shore of Pfister's Pond and features a wildlife watching shelter.
- ◆ Bischoff Trail: Visit the lagoon - a vernal pool that provides a breeding area for frogs and amphibians in the spring.
